MRS. LIZZIE FORMAN MARSHALL.

The announcement of the death of this good woman told of a loss that can never be repaired, of a sorrow which only heaven can heal. As wife, mother, sister, friend and neighbor, in all the relations of her life, so faithfully, so cheerfully, so disinterestedly and so devotedly, she was in contact with her fellow-creatures, and her influence was felt in every home where she lived. Her life was a life of self-sacrifice, her devotion to her loved ones and to those in the sphere of her life. It was often said of her by those who knew her best that she had a sweet smile which all her own care were devoted to the happiness of those around her.

Her was the light of her life shed only in her own household; it extended through a wide circle of kindred and friends. Of her it may be truly said that "her children rise up and call her blessed, and her husband also, and he praiseth her." She died in the hope of a blessed resurrection and resting in her Father's arms. May her husband and her sons be supported by the hope of a joyful reunion, as they will surely be comforted by the assurance of a life which has passed on earth only to bloom forever in Heaven.

Your eyes feel tired, or your head aches from eye strain, remember that our leading specialty is fitting the eye scientifically with just the proper glasses—no guess work—to relieve you and give you perfect vision, and that we make no charge for examination and guarantee satisfaction or money back.

LEXINGTON is the hotbed of a lot of Get-Rich-Quick Companies, some of which have been operating in this city.

In Covington JOHN L. RICH has filed suit against one of these—The Lexington Real Estate and Investment Company—for the recovery of money alleged to have been paid by him for coupons against the defendant.

He alleges that in July, 1900, the defendant sold to him ten certificates, each with coupons, in consideration of certain sums to be paid monthly. The defendant agreed, it is said, to redeem the coupons at three times the amount paid for them, one series to be redeemed in October and another in March, 1901, and at no time would he have to invest more than $75 or $80. He alleges that he paid $45.50 for the certificate, and later $63 in monthly installments, so that he had at one time $108 invested.

He alleges that "said scheme is impossible and inequitable, and will ultimately impose great financial distress and loss upon one of the certificate holders of said Company."

YES OR NO?

Maysville People are Respectfully Asked to Answer these Questions.

Is there anything in the evidence of one's senses?
 Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends?
 Can reliance be placed upon statements from people we know?
 Are the opinions of local citizens of any greater moment than those of strangers?

Would you sooner believe people living in some far-away place than citizens of your own city?
 We think not, for home proof can easily be investigated.

Mrs. E. Wallingford of 230 January street says:
 "Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at J. A. Wood's druggists corner of West Second and Market streets proved of such great benefit to Mr. Wallingford that he did not consider it necessary to take more than one box to cure him of backache which had annoyed him for some length of time. His father also used Doan's Ointment and is enthusiastic in its praise."

For sale by all druggists; price 50 cents a box.

A PITCHED BATTLE.

Two Killed and Two Wounded in the Result of a Fight Between Detectives and Desperadoes.

Maysville, Ky., April 13.—Two killed and two wounded in the result of a pitched battle between desperadoes on one side and John W. Wright, the celebrated detective, and his men, on the other, at Maysville, Ky., above here in Leitcher county.

The trouble has been expected for months, as Wright and his posse have been searching for the remaining seven members of the lawless looking gang, who, with eight others, brutally murdered Mrs. Minnie Hall and her son, Sherwood Reynolds, in Boone County, last November. The parties have declared that they could not be arrested.

Friday Wright and his men—Solomon Wright, his brother; Henry and Floyd Floodings; "Wild Bill," the unnamed detective; John Reddick, a man named (John) Wright, James Millard and one whose name could not be learned—came upon two of the enemy, Fred Potter and John Reynolds, two opened fire, the firing lasted twenty minutes, the firing was at close range, the shots having been heard for miles around.

In the midst of the fight John Reynolds received with a probably fatal wound in his left shoulder. Fred Potter kept up the fight alone until his ammunition gave out, and he was forced to give up.

When the smoke cleared away William Wright, the 16-year-old son of the late W. S. Wright, who was assassinated a year ago by John and Neal Reynolds, lay dead. A steel ball had pierced his abdomen. He died fighting the enemy to avenge his father's death.

A second victim was Isaac Millard, formerly of Pike county. A ball passed through his left breast. A man named John Osborne was shot through the right leg.

Frankfort, Ky., April 13.—The Lexington and Louisville batteries of state guard were put in readiness to be sent to Leitcher county, where a sheriff and two deputies are reported to have been killed while trying to arrest the suspected desperadoes, charged with the murder of Mrs. Minnie Hall and her son. The county judge of the county wired for troops from further north, but later news from the scene that troops are not needed and they will not be sent.

Middlebrook, Ky., April 13.—A head-end collision on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, this afternoon at 3:35 o'clock, between here and West Mineville, resulted in the death of Will Sharp, engineer, and Will Peterson, yardmaster. The engine was killed outright, but Peterson lived an hour. Frank Wilson, fireman, was perhaps fatally hurt, but not seriously. The engine was more or less bruised. A freight from Corbin ran to Middlebrook for a work train.
